

GET LUCKY GOLF × ERNIE ELS

Proposed Founding Partnership

The offer in one line. We are not asking Ernie to be a paid ambassador with a calendar of obligations. We are offering him a founding 5% equity stake to lend his name and story to the platform — minimal time, real upside, and a genuine seat at the table of a category-defining business.

Why this matters to Get Lucky

The global hole-in-one challenge category is real, proven in South Africa, and currently offline everywhere else. Ernie's name is the single fastest way to make Get Lucky credible in exactly the markets on our map — the UK, the US, the Middle East and Asia. His association does not just market the product; it de-risks us for every serious partner we approach next.

What we are asking of Ernie

- Name & likeness. His name and likeness as founding partner — on the platform, the marketing, and the prize moment. This is the core of the partnership and what makes Get Lucky legitimate at global scale.
- Founding-partner credibility. His standing as a founding shareholder is itself a deliverable. “Ernie Els is a founding partner” opens doors that an endorsement never could — with underwriters, sponsors, courses and a future acquirer. No active effort required; the association is the asset.
- Warm introductions, when natural. Where it is easy and makes sense for him — a course relationship, a tour conversation, a contact in the Middle East or US. Opt-in, never an obligation.
- A light touch of presence. One to two days a year, at most: a shoot, an appearance, or a cameo on The Get Lucky Golf Show. Capped, and entirely his choice which to take up.

What Ernie receives

Equity	A founding 5% stake, structured as non-dilutive, in Get Lucky Golf Club (Pty) Ltd.
Cost to Ernie	None. No capital, no fixed time commitment, no personal financial exposure.
Upside	A real holding in a business with a clear three-year plan and a defined exit trajectory (see commercial summary).
Protection	Founding-partner terms with the standard shareholder protections, structured alongside Ernie's own advisors.

The shape, not the final word. This is how we see it — but Ernie knows better than anyone how he likes to be involved with the things he puts his name to. We would welcome shaping the detail together so it fits him.
